

Craig Armstrong's "World Trade Centre"; Premiere - 2

The Hollywood Symphony Orchestra will be premiering Craig Armstrong's score to Oliver Stone's "World Trade Centre" on October 7th 2006. Over one hundred of Hollywood's most gifted musicians will appear on stage as UCLA's Royce hall and will be directed by the Society's Artistic Director, John Scott. The premiere will also debut an array of works by well known composers such as Ernest Gold and the legendary John Williams. For more information please visit the Hollywood Symphony Orchestra's website here.