

New FREE Sia Track and Video - 2006-09-11

Upon hearing "Colour the Small One" the people at American Eagle Outfitters loved the album so much that they asked Sia to record an exclusive track to pair with the album to sell in their shops until November 6th!

Alongside the exclusive track, Sia has self directed a video for the song, "Pictures". You can download both the video and the track at www.ae.com.
