

Archive Online Mixing Competition - 2007-02-13

Archive have joined forces with YourSpins.com to bring a new musical experience to their fans.

Using brand new technology from the YourSpins website the competition enables the user to remix the artiste's music online, save it, listen to each others efforts, compete with their mixes and send them on to friends.

The band are looking for fans to remix the track 'Sane', from their 'Lights' album. All saved remixes will be entered into the competition and the band members will be selecting a winner and ten runners-up to receive various Archive-related prizes.

To try your own hand at Archive's competition and put yourself in the running for some great Archive related personalized prizes please visit their website <http://www.archivemusic.net>.
